The Carmel Pine Cone

Their Education Depends On You

Whether or not children (above) in Miss Marcia DeVoe's kindergarten class at River School, also all other children in the Carmel Unified School District, will receive a superior education depends on the outcome of Tuesday's 70 cent override tax election.

By an overwhelming vote of the people of the Carmel school district, Dr. Robert E. Newton and Clayton Neill Jr. were re-elected to the district's board of education last year. Mrs. Roxanna Blanks and Steven Sassoon received similar support when they were elected. The fifth member of the board, Dr. Hilton Bialek, was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Richard Snyder. No citizen opposed his appointment.

Every member of the board has carefully studied the educational and financial needs of the district. They have sought, and evaluated, recommendations of citizens committees appointed to review the educational program and financial needs of the district. They have pared costs wherever possible.

The five trustees want to educate our children for tomorrows vastly more demanding, education-wise, from any yesterdays. They want to be able to compete with other districts, salarywise, in hiring superior teachers. They want to provide up-to-date textbooks and teaching aids. They want to repair school buildings and replace worn out equipment. They want to provide individualized instruction according to students' needs and parents' desires.

The Carmel Unified School District board of education wants the support of every voter on Tuesday who values preparing children to carry on the proud heritage of our country: the support of every voter who cherishes the values of this community of persons with above-average income, intelligence, education and homes.

This support will be given by a YES vote on Tuesday at a cost of 12½ cents a day to the average homeowner.

The Pine Cone recommends a YES vote. It is asked by five persons of integrity and good judgment elected by voters to educate the children of Carmel. M.L.

Answers To Questions On Tuesday's Election

By Marjory Lloyd

The Monterey Peninsula Taxpayers Association, which is opposing the 70-cent override tax requested by the board of education of the Carmel Unified School District, has compiled a list of questions and answers which appear in an advertisement on Page Six of this issue.

Following research and consultation, also from knowledge obtained by constant attendance at board meetings, The Pine Cone answers these questions, too. Persons consulted were Medill Bair, superintendent of the Carmel School District, Wayne Greenfield, assistant superintendent, and Norabelle Wright, assistant registrar of voters for Monterey County.

1. Was a special expensive, election necessary?

Teachers seek employment during Easter vacation (April 4-11). Passage of the override tax on Tuesday will enable the Carmel district to recruit needed teachers and offer an improved salary scale, particularly in respect to teachers with desirable five or six years of teaching experience which has been evaluated by other districts, thus eliminating the possibility of "dark horse" selections.

With the approval of the Monterey County Board of Supervisors, the override election could have been combined with the June primary. Such action, however, would have presented a danger. Separate election boards and polling places would have to be set up in the following precincts: Pebble Beach No. 2, Tularcitos, Mission No. 2, and Toro No. 2, because these primary election precincts contain areas in and outside the Carmel Unified School District.

The residence of each voter in these precincts would have to be checked on a map before a vote on the override could be cast in a polling place separate from that of the primary.

Should any voter in these precincts cast a ballot in the wrong precinct, and the override election be challenged, and a recount prove the error, the entire override election could be thrown out as invalid.

2. How was the amount of the override of 70c established?

It has been apparent to anyone present at board of education meetings that lack of funds has seriously hampered a superior education program in the Carmel district. Also apparent has been the dissatisfaction of parents with the education program offered. This dissatisfaction culminated in the reports of the 55 persons who were members of the citizens committee to make recommendations on the educational program.

Providing even a fraction of requested curriculum, instruction, equipment and maintenance improvements recommended by this group was far beyond the limits of the present tax rate, ($2.53).

Faced with these demands, the board appointed a citizens committee to study the present financial status and future financial needs of the district. This committee recommended a 77c override tax following three months of intensive study. The board of education took all these factors into consideration and asked for a 70c override, seven cents less than recommended.

3. What happens to the 50c override that is now in effect?

A YES vote on Tuesday will extend the present 50c override for three years. If the 70c override is not approved by the voters, the 50c override will continue for two more years.

4. How much will this add to the present budget?

The 70c override will add approximately $500,000, or 25%. However, $132,656 cannot be included in next year's budget. This sum must be kept as a reserve for later years. In addition, only 90%

Corporation Yard Roof Offends City Planners

Reiterated approval of the sale of the present police station, but disapproval of plans for the corporation yard on Junipero Street, were expressed by Carmel planning commissioners yesterday afternoon in reports which will be given to the city council.

The proposal of the council to sell the police station, appraised at $90,000, to help finance construction of a new station, public works building and corporation yard, was in accordance with the commission's prior recommenddation that this site NOT be included in the general plan, one adopted report stated. Furthermore, this report added (a) the commission on January 11, 1965, recommended to the council that the present police station site be sold; (b) studies in 1963, 1964 and 1965 caused the commission to further recommend the police station be maintained for temporary

Kite Festival This Weekend

March winds will loft wondrous creations into the sky over Middle School athletic field Saturday from 1:30-4 p.m. during the Annual Carmel Kite Festival which has lured children and adults to compete for prizes since 1930 when the late Reverend Willis White founded the event.

Traditional rules still prevail. All kites must be made by entrants: no commercial kites are allowed. Each kite must fly to be eligible for a prize. Each kite may be entered in one age group only, Charles Dawson, director of recreation for the Carmel Unified School District, announces.

Prizes will be donated by the Carmel Lions Club, co-sponsors of the event with the school district.

In addition to age-group awards, the Willis White prize will be given to the kite with the best

Teacher Offers School District Financial Aid

Last night a teacher offered financial help to the school district. It is noteworthy that this teacher is retiring after 15 years of dedicated service. He is Alan F. Aldwell, driver education teacher at Carmel High School. Mr. Aldwell, the Carmel board of education learned while considering his resignation, has offered to loan the district money, interest free, to provide driver-education cars, so important does he believe the education of young people in safe driving practices.

Mr. Aldwell, who has also taught U.S. history, world history and civics, at the high school, was highly commended by the trustees for his service to the district. It was through his efforts that the school's Permanent Scholarship Fund was developed several years ago.

The board also praised Mrs. Dorothy Estill, first grade teacher at Tularcitos School, upon her coming retirement after 20 years at Tularcitos and a total of 43 years as a dedicated elementary teacher.

Eddie Layton (above), Columbia recording star, will play an organ concert in Spreckels Veterans Memorial Building at 8:15 p.m. on Tuesday. From 3-5 p.m. the same day, he will appear at the Harnish Music Company store in Sherwood Gardens shopping center, Salinas, to autograph records and play informally for organ buffs. Tickets for the March 29 evening performance are available at the Harnish Music Company store at Mission and Sixth in Carmel.

Grand Canyon Threat

BY C. EDWARD GRAVES

The U. S. Bureau of Reclamation is asking for authorization to build two dams in Grand Canyon—Marble Gorge and Bridge Canyon dams. Although neither of these is within the boundaries of Grand Canyon National Park, both would seriously alter the character of the canyon and of the national park itself.

The Bridge Canyon Dam, though located below the national park, would back water up into the park for some 13 miles. The Marble Gorge Dam, which would be a short distance above the national park, would to a large extent dry up the living river in the heart of the park.

A bill now before Congress, H. R. 4671, includes these two dams. Several similar bills have also been introduced. The Bureau of Reclamation calls these dams "cash register dams." Their only purpose is to make money for the government. This is reminiscent of the Biblical story of the money-changers in the temple.

These dams would not conserve water for the Lower Colorado River Basin states. On the contrary they would waste enough water each year through evporation from the reservoir surfaces to fill the needs of a city the size of Phoenix, Arizona.

The Bridge Canyon Dam is not intended to supply water for the water-hungry Central Arizona region. This is expected to come from the existing Lake Havasu behind Parker Dam, far downstream. No one opposes this.

If Congress would authorize the construction of coal-and-nuclear steam plants, subsidized as the Grand Canyon dams would be, the "cash register" aspects of the project would not be changed. The Colorado River Basin is one of the world's richest storehouses of fossil and nuclear fuels. Thus Grand Canyon would be saved and everybody would be happy, except the Bureau of Reclamation which thrives on new hydro-projects at taxpayers' expense.

If all friends of Grand Canyon would write to their congressman (call your newspaper or public library if you don't know his name) with a message similar to the following, using your own wording, there might be a good chance of eliminating the two dams from the bill:

"I am completely opposed to the construction of any dams in Grand Canyon, in any place, at any time, or for any purpose whatever. I hope that you will oppose H. R. 4671, if it contains authorization for any such dam."

For further details about the threat to Grand Canyon read the article in the Jan.-Feb. 1966 Audubon Magazine by Richard C. Bradley, "Ruin for the Grand Canyon?", condensed in Reader's Digest, or any similar article in the publications of the various conservation organizations of the country. Ask your public library where you can find these articles.

Noted Educator To Lecture In Carmel

On Sunday and Monday, the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula will present a noted educator, Dr. Herman von Baravalle, in three lectures. The first on Sunday at 7:30 p.m., will be in River School. The title of this talk is "Color: Its Spiritual Force" and will be based on Goethe's work on color and illustrated with slides.

Two lectures will be given on Monday at All Saints' Church. At 10 a.m., Dr. von Baravalle will discuss "Religion and the Child." Baby-sitting service will be provided. At 7:30 p.m. the speaker's subject will be "The Creative Impulse in Pre-School Education."

Dr. von Baravalle is a mathematician and the author of many works in the fields of geometry, physics, astronomy and pedagogy. He was formerly head of the mathematics department of Adelphi College in Garden City, New York. Presently he is in charge of training teachers at the Waldorf Teachers Seminar in Los Angeles. His annual Eastern lecture tour begins in Philadelphia only three days after his appearance here.

Cancer Society Goal For 1966 Is $54,000

Dr. Stephen Thorngate, president of the Monterey County branch of the American Cancer Society, announces that "C-Day," the beginning of the annual cancer crusade, will be April 1.

Volunteers will call upon residents to give them vital educational information, which will include the seven danger signals of cancer, and to ask their support in the 1966 crusade. At present, one-third of all cancer victims are being cured. This figure could be raised to fully one-half if people would inform themselves about the disease. Dr. Thorngate asks everyone to read the literature given by a volunteer.

Monterey County's crusade goal this year is $54,000. This amount is needed on the local level to support the services and educational programs, also to give Monterey County's share of support to the national research that will provide the final answers to cancer.

Carmel chairmen are Colonel W. W. Downer, business area chairman, and Francis P. (Skip) Lloyd and Mrs. Frederick Stanley, residential area chairman.

CHURCH YOUTH GROUP TO HOLD BAKE SALES

Ikthys, youth fellowship of the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula, is sponsoring two bake sales on Saturday at 10 a.m., running concurrently at Purity in Carmel, and Safeway in the Rancho Shopping Center. Serving as co-chairmen of the events are Mary Weatherford and Pamela Martin.

The Ikthys youth are planning to spend the weekend of April 22-24 in Santa Ana as guests of the Pilgrim Fellowship of the First Congregational Church. A full schedule of activities is planned, including a day in Disneyland.

What to do with a serviceable collection of furnishings, a little the worse for wear when undertaking an extensive renovation project, was the problem faced by H. R. (Hank) Fonseca (left), owner of the Carmel River Inn, when he decided to improve and update the property.

Mel Isenberger, whose wife is president-elect of the Mother Goose chapter, Children's Home Society, grins his approval of Mr. Fonseca's decision to donate all the items to the chapter. They were sold on an "as is where is" basis Sunday afternoon with all proceeds, $1,000, going to the society.

Fonseca's plans for the eight-acre River Inn property call for complete renovation of the existing buildings, and provision of "quietly elegant furnishings in keeping with the beauty of the site."

Douglas Grant Died Thursday Night In Carmel Point Fire

Douglas Grant, 78, famed international amateur golfer and designer of golf courses, died March 17 when flames consumed the Carmel Point residence he and his wife, Elsbeth, occupied for the six months of the year they were not in Canterbury, England.

The blaze had already penetrated the roof of their house on Valley View near 15th when noticed by a neighbor who called the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department at 9:47 p.m. The State Division of Forestry Hill Station responded immediately upon relay of the call from Carmel.

First on the scene were Carmel's assistant fire chief, J. R. Belvail, and a neighbor, Lieutenant Dennis W. Ferm, who entered the burning house in search of occupants but were unable to locate anyone in the section which could be approached. Later efforts of firemen to reach Mr. Grant were hampered by the intensity of the fire where his body was subsequently found, covered by debris, near the fireplace in the living-room. Mr. Grant, totally deaf, is reported by the coroner's office to have died of smoke inhalation and heat.

The cause of the fire, according to Ranger Harry McCauley of the Carmel Hill station was probably a damaged tile flue venting the floor furnace which allowed heat to ignite subflooring. The consequent blaze spread to other parts of the building.

Mrs. Grant was with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Bobbs of Hatton Fields, at the time the fire was reported.

Born in Irvington-on-Hudson, New York, on August 7, 1887, Mr. Grant was raised in San Francisco and was the son of the late Joseph D. Grant, a holder of extensive Northern California real estate. He attended Belmont preparatory school and Yale University.

Prominent in golfing circles since his youth, Mr. Grant was a well known figure locally since 1915. With Jack Neville, he designed the Pebble Beach golf course. He was a member of Cypress Point Club, the Olympic Club of San Francisco and was current president of the Royal St. George golf course at Sandwich, England. Mr. Grant was named, in 1962, to the California Golf Hall of Fame.

In addition to his wife and daughter, he leaves two half sisters, Mrs. Josephine G. McCreery of San Jose and Mrs. Edith Ordway of Byron, California; and five grandchildren, among them Sheila, Marjory and Norie Bobbs of Carmel.

Private services were held Friday in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, followed by inurnment in Mountain View Cemetery in Oakland. The family prefers that no memorial contributions of any kind be offered.

The Dorney and Farlinger Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

Gerry Barron Turns Tables

It was a double surprise at the Gerald Barrons on St. Patrick's night. Betty, knowing her Irish husband's annual enjoyment of the event, decided that this year she would plan a surprise party at their home on Yankee Point Drive. A group of friends began arriving for cocktails about six o'clock, and soon after the "host" arrived amid cries of "surprise" and "happy St. Pat's Day."

But Jerry quickly turned the tables and countered with his news! He had just announced in Salinas that he would stand for election as Democratic candidate from the 12th Congressional District.

Among those present to share the excitement, in addition to the Barron's son Jerry, and daughter, Mary were, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Liese, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Antoncich, Mr. and Mrs. John Ruster, Mrs. Webster Street, Mrs. George Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hayes. Others invited but unable to attend the party included Mr. Street, Mr. and Mrs. John Robotti, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kastros and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byers.

Dienelts On Mexican Shuffle

Rooted in Mexico as they are, Bert and Margaret Dienelt's visits to their former Carmel home have become shorter and shorter—and who can blame them for not leaving their beautiful house in Puerto Vallarta. The Dienelts, who arrived less than ten days ago, have already traveled to Sonora to look over their resort hotel, Gunn House, in the old Mother Lode country and are planning to return to Mexico as soon as they have taken care of business matters here where they own the Mission Ranch.

"Not even time to see our friends," wailed Margaret, adding that she hopes to get back to the Peninsula soon for a longer stay.

Parties For Bride-To-Be

Susan White, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. White of Carmel, has finally been "'grounded" from her job as a stewardess with Pan American Airlines in anticipation of her coming marriage to Frank Veninga on April 16. Since she has been home, Sue has been honored by numerous local friends.

Mrs. Harry Bayley of Pebble Beach and her daughter, Mary Jo Donahue, will be hostesses Saturday at a luncheon and shower and Mrs. David Hagemeyer of Carmel has planned a tea and kitchen shower early next week. Among others who have entertained in Sue's honor are Mrs. Orville B. Jones, Mrs. John D. Mahoney, and Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Doud, who were co-hosts with John Doud and Dr. and Mrs. Roger Detels. The latter flew down from Seattle for the cocktail buffet party honoring the young couple.

Catherine Devlin To Wed

April 3 has been chosen by Catherine Devlin of Pebble Beach and San Francisco as the date of her marriage to Richard Edward (Ted) McKown Jr. of San Francisco. The ceremony will be performed at Carmel Mission Basilica before members of the young couple's families.

Miss Devlin is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur C. Devlin of Pebble Beach and the late Mr. Devlin. She has a sister, Mrs. Diane D. Parker of San Francisco, and two brothers, Robert T. Devlin of San Francisco and Arthur V. Devlin of Pebble Beach.

A graduate of Sacramento High School, the bride-to-be attended the University of California where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Mr. McKown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McKown of Bar Harbor, Maine, and the brother of Robert F. McKown of Wayland, Massachusetts. He attended the University of Massachusetts and Wesleyan University. With marriage, he will relinquish his membership in the Bachelors of San Francisco.

Festive Farewells Planned

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. van Loben Sels have planned a dinner party tomorrow evening in honor of friends bound for foreign lands. The lucky travelers from Pebble Beach are Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Jordan, who are off to Europe, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Jenkins, who board a plane Sunday for a month's stay in the heart of French Oceania.

Although this will be the Jenkinses sixth trip to Tahiti and the neighboring islands, they are equally as excited about this trip as their first. This year, in addition to visits at Bora-Bora, Rangiroa and Raiatea, they plan to see Tahaa, one of the largest and most untouched islands of the group, where Mrs. Jenkins looks forward to gathering rare shells to add to their collection.

Other guests who will gather at the van Loben Selses' home to wish bon voyage to the travelers are Mr. and Mrs. George Yates, and Mr. and Mrs. William McKenzie of San Juan.

The van Loben Selses, incidentally, are preparing for the arrival of their son, Page, who will be home from the University of California at Berkeley at Easter vacation, bringing with him 18 fellow students. Page, a Carmel High School graduate, is warden of Golden Bear, senior men's honor society.

Carmel Man Found Dead In His Home

The body of Arnold L. Graves, 72, was found last night in the bedroom of his home on Dolores street north of Vista when Carmel police were called to investigate the house and alerted the sheriff's office.

Denny Lucero, an employee of June Simpson's Restaurant, found the lights on at Mr. Graves' house but received no response when he rang for admittance to deliver dinner, for which Mr. Graves had a standing order with the restaurant. Mr. Lucero accompanied Sergeant Del Wermuth to the house, where they looked through a window and observed the body on the floor.

Sheriff's deputies arrived, gained entry by breaking a window and, finding Mr. Graves dead, notified the coroner. According to Deputy Coroner Harvey Hillbun, death was due to natural causes and is believed to have occurred sometime Tuesday night. The body was removed to the Paul Mortuary, where funeral services are pending.

Mr. Graves, a former Los Angeles attorney, leaves no known survivors. His wife is reported to have died in 1958.

MPC Appointments

William A. Dorman was hired by the Monterey Peninsula College board of trustees last week to serve as a one-year sabbatical replacement for Roderick Holmgren of Carmel, chairman of the journalism department. Mr. Dorman began his journalistic career while a student at MPC, serving as editor of El Yanqui and as a columnist for Peninsula newspapers. He holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from Sacramento State College and a master's degree in the same field from the University of California at Berkeley. Currently editor of a trade journal, he is completing work for a junior college teaching credential at Sacramento State.

Mrs. Rosemary Miller of Carmel was appointed as a part-time instructor in the business division during the current semester. She has previously taught evening and summer session classes at the college.

Among MPC instructors who were granted tenure were Joseph Hysong of Carmel, art; Chris Pappas, physical education, and David Hopkins, business, both of Pebble Beach.

Firkusnys Entertained

A famous and handsome couple strolled Carmel's Ocean Avenue last weekend. The world renowned virtuoso of the piano, Rudolf Firkusny, soloist at the Monterey County Symphony's fourth concert of the season on Tuesday evening, was accompanied during his off-stage hours here by his beautiful bride. A native of Czechoslovakia, Mrs. Firkusny was seeing Monterey Peninsula for the first time. Their guide was Ivan Herben, a lifelong friend of Mr. Firkusny. Mr. Herben, for 16 years senior script writer in Europe for Radio Free Europe, came to Carmel a little more than a year ago to be near his son Milan Herben, owner of a Carmel music company.

The enthusiastic visitors toured Big Sur, the forest and the 17-Mile-Drive. "And truly enchanting," Mrs. Firkusny exclaimed, "are the each-one-different homes here and the surprising shops, so quaint outside, so avant garde inside!"

Three receptions for the Symphony soloist were held. The first, for Symphony donors, followed the closed rehearsal on Sunday afternoon at Sunset. Mr. and Mrs. Sig Aidelberg hosted a post-concert party in their home in Salinas on Monday evening. The gala reception at the La Playa hotel on Tuesday evening climaxed the Firkusnys stay here.

Jon I. Akselsen of Carmel was commissioned an Army second lieutenant last week after graduating from the infantry officer candidate school at Fort Benning, Georgia. The young officer, a 1960 graduate of Robert Louis Stevenson School, is now undergoing further training for three weeks with the Army Airborne.

Jon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Akselsen, are looking forward to seeing their son when he receives a three-week leave after completion of his present training course.

Paget Decker Won Award

Paget A. Decker is one of two Hartnell College students named as winners in the 1966 Bank of America Business Awards program. The young student, one of the Hartnell Panther's top baseball pitchers, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Decker of Corral de Tierra. During the many years the Deckers made their home in Carmel, Paget attended local schools and still has many friends in this area.

Attended Insurance Course

W. Thomas Brown Jr., agency manager in Carmel for The State Life Insurance Company, completed an intensive two-week course given by the Life Insurance Agency Management Association in Riverside earlier this month. Mr. Brown was one of a selected group of field management and home office executives chosen to study by the association, an international cooperative research organization.

Miss Mansfield Honored

Portia Mansfield returned this week from the annual national convention of the American Camping Association in Chicago, where she was honored as a former president of the association. Of those present, Miss Mansfield held the record for the longest continuous service as a camp director.

Colonel Arima Commended

Lieutenant Colonel James Arima of Carmel received the First Oak Leaf Cluster to the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service on his recent retirement from the Army and his departure from the Combat Developments Command Experimentation Command at Fort Ord. Colonel Arima, who served as psychologist for CDCEC headquarters here, has accepted a position with the Stanford Research Institute, the command's research office, and has reported for duty with ACTIV (Army Concept Team in Vietnam). The project's scientists primarily assist ACTIV in the design and operation of data collection systems.

While Colonel Arima is in Vietnam, his wife Midori and the couple's sons, Tom and Adrian, both Carmel High School students, will remain in Carmel.

Griffiths Are New Parents

William Reynolds Griffith started out life in a big way — nine pounds, to be exact. The new son of Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith of Carmel was born at Community Hospital on March 4 and is receiving tender loving care in ample doses from his 13-year-old sister, Lyn, a student at Santa Catalina School for girls.

Young William is the grandson of Mrs. Thomas W. Slaven of Berkeley and Mrs. George P. Griffith of Beverly Hills.

Lorlei Is Her Name

If Lorlei lives up to her name, Lieutenant Raymond Kalinowski (USN) should soon be winging his way home from Japan for his first look at his new daughter, who was born at Community Hospital March 4. Meanwhile, Lorlei Elizabeth and her mother are having a happy, if busy, time.

The new baby is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Breitinger of Leinfelden, Germany, and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Kalinowski of St. Louis, Missouri.

Party Plans

By Phyllis Jervey

Did you realize that the aristocrat of the dining table also serves the autocrat of the racing stable?

"Artichokes Rushed to New York for Gourmet French Horse" was a local headline that brought artichoke and horse lovers together.

A few years ago, Jamin, the French trotting champion, had been flown to New York from France to compete for the international harness race championship. He had always relished raw artichokes in his native land and his trainer-driver had brought along the necessary "artichauts." But the U.S. Department of Agriculture impounded the lush legumes. Poor Jamin was forced to subsist on the plebian rations allotted less temperamental trotters. He languished for a week. His owner and trainer were both frantic. In New York City they were fresh out of artichokes!

"None of that frozen fodder," whinnied Jamin, "only fresh young artichauts for me!"

Out here in Carmel, the only independent artichoke growers, Odello Bros., rushed to the rescue.

"Out of season with us? Never!"

A large crate of fresh young artichokes was flown jet non-stop to New York. There a special courier dashed the pre-race fuel to Roosevelt Raceway on Long Island. Peninsula fans asked each other "Will that French horse really win?"

The "Artichoke Alert" payed off. Spark-plugged by his daily quota of stimulating Carmel artichokes, Jamin saved his face and pace. The French trotter became the new international harness race horse champion. Now there is a very chic cafe in New York's lower fifties called "Jamin" which features artichokes!"

This was followed through with a recent "Artichokes Up" experiment which the Gold Coast television station sponsored. To dramatize the richness of our Western agriculture, artichokes were flown in special packets to New York arriving the same day they were picked here. The "exotic" vegetables were carried home along the New Haven and Long Island railroad lines by some 300 advertising agency and TV executives. Their wives begged for recipes! We who are not baffled on how to prepare and eat an artichoke will now share the following variations of preparation with the East.

But do go down Highway One and look at the long grey-green lines of artichokes. Within sound and sight of the surf, this familiar landmark just south of Carmel River is the last of a family-owned artichoke industry in California.

When Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon were entertained by Stuyvesant Fish at his Rancho Palo Corona above the artichoke fields, the Odellos were asked for cocktails and Princess Margaret raved about the artichokes growing practically at her feet. It seems that the artichokes which grow on the Mediterranean are as versatile and adaptable as ours. As a snack, a first course, a vegetable or a salad they have that "je ne sais quoi" which appeals to gourmets.

As Lord Snowdon is "quite a cook" perhaps he would like to surprise Princess Margaret with some of the following ways to serve her favorite California dish?

ODELLO FRIED ARTICHOKES

Select small tender artichokes whose heart has not yet turned into thistles. These are known as bambinos. Wash in salted water and dry with paper towels. Cut about ½ inch from tops, then into ½ inch slices lengthwise. Dip these in beaten egg and then roll in flour. Fry in deep fat, briefly, like potatoes. Marvelous as an hors d'oeuvre.

ARTICHOKE TRAY APPETIZER

Pull petals from a cooked drained and chilled artichoke. Arrange in circles with a bite of seafood salad on the light-colored end of each leaf. Or arrange petals around a fresh tomato or pepper "cup" filled with creamy mixture such as 1 cup sour cream, 2 tbsps. soy sauce, 1 tbsp. lemon juice and ½ tsp. ground ginger.

ARTICHOKE OMELET
(Serves 6)

Six small cooked artichokes; ¼ cup olive oil; 1 clove garlic, minced; 3 tbsps. chopped parsley; 1 small onion, thinly sliced; 4 eggs; ½ tsp. salt and ¼ tsp. pepper.

Remove leaves and chokes. Cut artichoke hearts into about half-inch slices, lengthwise. Heat olive oil. Add sliced artichoke hearts, garlic and parsley. Cook, stirring frequently, until lightly browned. Add onion slices and cook a trifle longer. Beat eggs slightly with salt and pepper and pour over mixture. Cook very slowly until browned on bottom. Turn out on a large skillet and slide back into pan to brown on other side.

ARTICHOKE CRAB SALAD

Four large artichokes; salt; sharp French dressing (non-sweet); 2 cups prepared crab salad; mayonnaise and lemon juice; paprika.

Wash artichokes, trim stems with scissors and pull off tough outer leaves. Turn upside down on table and press stem ends firmly to spread leaves. Cut off top half of artichokes. Place artichokes in about 1 in. rapidly boiling water and sprinkle with 1 tsp. salt. Cover and boil slowly until tender, but do not overcook. Be sure to drain thoroughly, upside-down, in a colander. There is nothig more pathetic than a drippy artichoke. Pull out center core of tiny leaves and scoop out fuzzy portion with teaspoon. Gently spread outer leaves apart to form broad shallow cup. Drizzle a tart French dressing over this chef d'oeuvre and chill.

Produce a superlative fresh or canned crab salad complete with Pascal celery cubes and pimiento stuffed olive slices. Blend mayonnaise and fresh lemon juice and pour over crab melange. Toss together lightly with salt and paprika. Heap into chilled artichokes.

Keep this recipe on hand for that moment when British or Long Island execs pop into our secluded Carmel. The Easter college crowd will also approve!

Why We Are Opposing Carmel Unified School District Override

1. WAS A SPECIAL, EXPENSIVE ELECTION NECESSARY? Only because the school authorities wanted the funds available as quickly as possible—there is no indication of the necessity for such emergency action.

2. HOW WAS THE AMOUNT OF THE OVERRIDE OF 70c ESTABLISHED? After months of study by a school appointed committee, with no general agreement on a proposed 77c override, the board arbitrarily decided to ask for a 70c override.

3. WHAT HAPPENS TO THE 50c OVERRIDE THAT IS NOW IN EFFECT? In the board's resolution, they ask that this be extended making the total override $1.20.

4. HOW MUCH WILL THIS ADD TO THE PRESENT BUDGET? With an estimated $70 million dollar assessment, the 70c will add about $500,000 or 25%.

5. HAS THERE BEEN A RAPID INCREASE IN STUDENT ENROLLMENT? No, the increase has been 15% over a period of five years and there was a drop between 1963-64 and 1964-65. Adult attendance was only 186, or 20 more than 1960.

6. HOW MUCH HAVE THE REVENUES INCREASED FROM PROPERTY TAXES? During the last six years, the county records show an increase of $700,000, or 66.1%. In 1965-66, taxes collected for school operation amounted to $1,756,543.

7. WHAT OTHER TAXES DO WE PAY FOR SCHOOLS? We pay 13c per hundred for County Administration, 44c for junior college, 7c for college bonds, and 35c for school bonds—a total of 99c per hundred which now costs the district $687,344. Our total school cost is amost $2½ million dollars from taxes.

8. HOW DOES THE NUMBER OF STUDENTS IN THIS DISTRICT COMPARE TO THE REST OF THE STATE? 94 districts with the same grade span as Carmel have a total ADA (Average Daily Attendance) of 1,459,835. 595,832 of these are in Los Angeles district, but the other 93 districts have an average enrollment of 9300. Carmel has 2,936 (including adults) and Pacific Grove has 3,750.

9. WHAT IS THE COST PER STUDENT? Latest available figures show Carmel is $681.91 and Pacific Grove $470.00. This is for 1964-65.

10. HOW DOES THIS COMPARE TO THE STATE AVERAGE? State Department of Education figures for 1963-64 show Carmel $607.35 and the state average is $477.26. Carmel is $130.09, 27% higher than the State average.

11. WHAT DOES THE COMPARISON OF THE TAX RATE MEAN? Only how much the taxpayer will have to pay when it is multiplied by the assessed valuation. There is a wide variation in assessed valuation due to the character of the area.

12. CAN YOU ILLUSTRATE WHAT THIS MEANS? Carmel has almost twice the assessed valuation of Pacific Grove and has 800 less students. Beverly Hills has a very low tax rate—$1.70 per hundred—and the highest cost per ADA. They have 1300 more students than Carmel, but four times as much assessed valuation. Cost per ADA is the only logical comparison.

13. DO THE STATE FIGURES SHOW WHY CARMEL'S COST IS HIGHER? The largest item is teacher's salaries—$333.83 per student ADA against a state average of $276.36 per student ADA or 16% over state average. (Pacific Grove is $255.16, Los Angeles is $281.38.)

14. WHAT OTHER ITEMS ARE ABOVE AVERAGE? Some of the other items taken from the state report are as follows:

	Carmel	Pac. Grove	State Average
Administration Expense	29.86	20.75	15.48 (per
Principals Salaries	33.05	21.08	23.98 student
Other Certified Salaries	17.39		16.30 ADA)
Classified Salaries	22.47		18.56
Other Instruction Exp.	29.56		17.67
Health Services	7.66		6.73
Operation of Plant	55.42		43.06
Maintenance of Plant	18.72		22.57
Transportation	23.98		8.63
Total	$238.11		$172.98

(a difference of $65.13 per student ADA, or 28% over average)

15. JUST WHAT DO THESE FIGURES MEAN? They show that the Carmel Unified School District is operating at a cost 27% higher than the state average. We believe this justifies a close analysis by qualified experts.

16. IS THE HIGH COST PER ADA THE ONLY REASON YOU OPPOSE THE OVERRIDE? It is generally conceded that any increase in living costs, including taxes, that exceeds 3% per year is definitely inflationary and that all public bodies should plan their budgets ahead to stay within these limits. Nothing in our economy justifies a 25% increase as now proposed.

17. CAN PROPERTY OWNERS CONTINUE TO ABSORB THE INCREASED DEMANDS FOR MORE TAXES? Reports from Congressman Burt Talcott say "Real property, as a tax source has become saturated." Attorney General Lynch states "Increased demands on property owners are fast becoming "confiscation" instead of "taxation."

18. WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF RISING TAXES ON THE CARMEL AREA? Increasing taxes force the subdivision of ranches and agricultural areas. Every subdivision robs the area of more of its rural scenic beauty.

19. IS THE PUBLIC WELL ENOUGH INFORMED TO VOTE ON THESE MATTERS? Usually, the proponents of these proposals give out only limited facts that are favorable. Instead of cost per pupil, they publish comparative tax rates and leave it to the public to dig out the rest of the facts.

20. DO YOU EXPECT A LARGE TURNOUT AT THIS SPECIAL ELECTION? The record shows that only a small number of the registered voters turn out for special elections—25% is considered good. The proper voting booth is usually hard to find and unless the public is aroused, the issue usually carries and taxes continue to go up.

WE URGE YOU TO VOTE "NO" ON MARCH 29th

Studio Theatre Gives Smooth Production Of 'Mr. Roberts'

BY DOROTHY REED

A smooth, entertaining production of "Mister Roberts" opened last weekend at the Studio Theatre-Restaurant. The play's original material turns out to be surprisingly refreshing after its over-exposure as a weekly television series now in the re-run stage, and its characters suffer only a little from the stereotypes they have become.

Most noticeable, perhaps, is the fact that "Mister Roberts" is now a period piece. Removed 20 years from the boredoms and tensions of wartime, the motivations have lost their intensity. The antics of the liberty-starved crew seem more childish than desperate; the captain's worship of his palm tree awarded for distinguished service and his hat with scrambled eggs on its brim is less ruthless than quaint. The play has turned into a comedy, its drama lost.

Roy Baxter makes a most engaging Lieutenant Roberts, so that his rapport with the crew is easily understood. Michael Keller is hilarious as the lazy, lascivious Ensign Pulver whose machinations in the romance department run far ahead of any contribution he might make to the war effort. There is only one thing the matter with these two—they lack the look and shocking youthfulness that marked the college-trained ensigns and jaygees in 1945. A glance into any picture-story of World War II will confirm this; today's high school seniors look more sophisticated than did the young officers of that day. Who knows why this was so—but it was.

The laconic, accommodating Doc is convincingly portrayed by W. H. Scholefield, and David L. Morris capers and rants as the Captain. His characterization, perhaps does betray the influence of television in being even a little more unreasonable than life.

Lucinda Fry is mouth-watering as the nurse lured to the ship by the enterprising Pulver—one forgets how downright sexy a woman's uniform can be with the right stuffing.

As Dolan, the yeoman whose fierce partisanship of Mr. Roberts makes him especially hurt when his hero seems to be letting the crew down, Richard L. Gardner gives an appealing performance. Glenn Kovacevich makes the most of his part as a shore patrol officer delivering the men back to the ship after their one wild night of liberty and reciting their exploits with relish.

Winston Sargant is resigned as the gum-chewing Dowdy, and the rest of the crew, played by Charles Beardon, J. R. Woody, Roderick Sibley, Jerry Don Johnson and Jim Sweeney, start out as an indistinguishable bunch, but each has assumed individuality by the end of the play.

Ruth Jordan Allan's sets competently project the atmosphere of a ship's deck and an officer's cabin, and Michael Keller's direction keeps are action moving right along.

"Mister Roberts" plays Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 8:30, with dinner preceding from 6:30 p.m.

AID IN INCOME TAX RETURNS TO BE AVAILABLE

An auditor from the State Franchise Tax Board will visit Monterey to aid taxpayers in completing their state income tax returns on April 6 and 7.

A temporary office of the board will be opened in the council chambers of Monterey City Hall, 580 Pacific Avenue.

In addition, further assistance is available each Monday at the Monterey U.S.O. building, Webster and El Estero streets. This service will also be provided in the same location on April 15.

All Californians (a) who earned $2,000 or more if single, (b) $4,000 or more in combined income if married, or (c) who had a gross income of $5,000 or more, must file a state income tax return. The deadline for filing returns and paying the tax due is April 15.

DLI INSTRUCTOR WAS ROTARY GUEST

Guest speaker at the Carmel Rotary Club's meeting on March 16 was Paul Cang, Vietnamese instructor from the Defense Language Institute. Born in South Vietnam, Mr. Cang was educated in France and at a number of universities in the United States before joining the DLI staff in June, 1962. The speaker was presented by Tom Brown, director of international service, who brought two students from Monterey Peninsula College for the international program.

Yesterday, Carmel Rotarians had as their guest speaker Pam Baldwin, Carmel High School student body secretary and past president of the Carmel Youth Center. Miss Baldwin's subject was "The Teenagers and Their Activities at Carmel Youth Center."

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

Notice is hereby given that the City of Carmel, Carmel, California will receive bids for excavation work in connection with the construction of a Police Station and Corporation Yard Facilities on the site located at S. E. corner of Junipero and Fourth Streets, Carmel, California. Each bid to be in accordance with plans, specifications and other documents now on file in the Carmel City Hall, Monte Verde between Ocean and Seventh Streets, Carmel, California. Copies may be obtained upon deposit of a check made payable to City of Carmel in the amount of $50.00 per set, which will be refunded upon return of plans and specifications in good order.

Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, or local law hereto applicable, the City of Carmel has ascertained the general prevailing per diem wage rates and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed, and each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

The prevailing rates so determined are as follows:

Craft	Journeyman Rate
Jackhammer Operator	$4.02½
Laborers:
All cleanup work of debris, grounds and buildings	3.77½
Construction laborers	3.77½
General workers (including all cleanup work, loading lumber, loading and burning of debris)	3.77½
Truck Drivers (dump trucks—water level under 4 yds)	4.05½
4 yds and under 6 yds	4.15
6 yds and under 8 yds	4.35
8 yds and over	4.59
Pavement breaker with or without compressor combination	4.99½
Tractors, Dozers, Scrapers, Sheep Foot, self-propelled Compactor with Dozer and Push-Cats	5.15
Loader (up to 2 yds)	5.19
Combination Backhoe and Loader (to and including 3/8 yd)	5.41
Loader (2 yds up to and including 4 yds)	5.41
Power Shovels, Clamshells, draglines, backhoes, and Grad-Alls (over 1 yd. and up to and including 7 cu. yds. m.r.c.) (Assistant to Engineer required)* (2 Assistants to Engineer required on 120B similar or larger)*	5.55

*In each instance in which one (1) or more Assistant to Engineer is required, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, an Indentured Apprentice may be employed.

The foregoing is based upon an eight (8) hour working day unless otherwise indicated. Rates for legal holidays and overtime work shall be according to local trades agreements in effect at the time of bidding.

NOTE: For any classification or group of classifications not above listed, the prevailing wage rate or rates shall be established and made a part hereof by change order.

Union rates and rules for supervision, transportation, and travel as they relate to the various trades, shall be included in the bid.

The Contractor shall keep himself informed of any changes in the above wage schedules and shall include any increases in his bid.

It shall be mandatory upon any contractor to whom a contract is awarded and upon any sub contractor under him, to pay not less than the said specified rates to all laborers, workman, and mechanics employed by them in the execution of the contract.

Each bid shall be made out on a form to be obtained at the Carmel City Hall and shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bid bond for ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the Bid, made payable to the City of Carmel, Carmel, California and shall be sealed and marked: SEALED BID.

Bids will be received until 4:30 P.M., April 6, 1966 at the Office of the City Clerk, Carmel City Hall, Monte Verde between Ocean and Seventh streets, Carmel, California, at which time the bids will be opened and publicly read aloud in his office, City Hall, Carmel, California.

The above mentioned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that bidders will enter into the contract if awarded to him and it will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract within ten (10) days after being requested to do so by the City of Carmel. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a Labor and Material Bond in the amount of fifty per cent (50%) of the contract price, and a Faithful Performance Bond in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%) of the contract price, said bonds to be secured from the Surety Company satisfactory to the City of Carmel.

The City of Carmel reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive any informalities in the bids submitted, and to award the contract on the basis of the bid which serves the best interests of the City of Carmel.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

Dated at Carmel, California, this 17th day of March, 1966.

Carmel School District Voters:

DON'T SIGN A BLANK CHECK

Since 1960 Carmel School District student enrollment has increased by 448 students. District revenue has increased $700,000 or over $1,500.00 per new student in the same time. Does the "new student load" really need $500,000 more?

LIBRARIANS PLAN AUTHORS' FESTIVAL

Plans were initiated last week by the Monterey Bay Area Children's Librarians for an Authors' Festival to be held November 5 as the final event of National Children's Book Week. At the festival, boys and girls will have the opportunity to meet some of the authors and illustrators who are currently creating books for young people.

Among those present at the organization's meeting at The Outrigger was Mrs. Dorothy Colvin, children's librarian at Harrison Memorial Library. Mrs. Louva Huntington, Monterey County Children's Librarian and chairman of the group, presided.

Let's Face It!

Education costs money and the Carmel Schools need Your Support!

1. A tax increase of 35 cents is needed merely to maintain the existing school program. The cost of running the school system increases at the rate of 9.1% per year while the revenues available from growth in the tax base increase at only 7.5% a year. The estimated budget deficit for 1966-1967 is $100,557 if the override does not pass.

2. School tax rates are lower in the Carmel Unified School District than in other comparable areas and in the adjoining school districts.

Present tax rate:	Carmel	2.53
	Marina	3.38
	Monterey	3.48
	Pacific Grove	3.59
	Gilroy	3.32

Even with the .70 override, the Carmel tax rate is still lowest at 3.23.

3. The Carmel school system is not able to compete salarywise for teachers even with school districts in the immediate area, especially in the middle experience ranges.

4. Carmel Unified School District is unable to retain many of its best teachers. At present, there is a 22% turnover each year.

5. Carmel teachers cannot afford to live in the area in which they teach. In 1963, one out of every five teachers were not living in Carmel and presently the ratio is 1 to 4. It is economically easier for a Marina teacher to live in Carmel than for a Carmel teacher to live in Carmel.

6. Failure to pass the override tax may necessarily result in a decrease in the present number of teachers by 8. This is in addition to the 8 additional teachers desperately needed now at the Middle School.

7. In the last THREE years, the number of students has increased by 370, while the teaching staff has remained the same and there is one less administrator.

8. The problem facing the Carmel Schools is one which requires immediate action. They are not asking for the "moon," but for the minimal support necessary to maintain the existing program and make a few urgently needed improvements.

We urge you to vote "YES" on Tuesday, March 29, 1966.

George Fortier

Requiem mass was celebrated Monday morning at Carmel Mission Basilica for George J. Fortier, prominent Carmel businessman and a Peninsula resident for more than 40 years, who died Friday night in a local hospital after several months of illness.

Born in Washington, California, on August 29, 1898, Mr. Fortier spent his childhood in Nevada City, attending schools there and in Grass Valley. Following graduation from Lowell High School in San Francisco, he received his degree from the College of Pharmacy of the University of California.

For the past 25 years he was the owner-operator of Fortier's Drug Store in Carmel. Prior to that, Mr. Fortier was the proprietor for some 15 years of drug stores in Pacific Grove and Monterey.

He was a member of the Northern California Pharmaceutical Association, National Association of Retail Druggists and the University of California Alumni Association. He belonged also to Billie Burke Council No. 4593, Knights of Columbus, and was a life member of the Elks.

Mr. Fortier leaves a son, John Fortier of Los Gatos; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Agnes Scott of Los Angeles and Mrs. Carmelita Amman of Cincinnati, Ohio; and 12 grandchildren. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. William F. Coughlin of Carmel, and a niece, Sister John Baptist, C.S.C., of Salt Lake City.

Interment took place in the Monterey Catholic Cemetery. The Mission Mortuary was in charge of funeral services.

Friends wishing to remember Mr. Fortier through contributions may do so to the Cobalt Fund of Community Hospital, P.O. Box HH, Carmel.

ORDINANCE NO 124 C.S.

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING ZONING WITH RESPECT TO SALES BY PUBLIC OUTCRY

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN as follows:

Section 1. That Division 1, Part X of the Municipal Code be amended by the addition of new sections which shall read as follows:

1303.80 SALES BY PUBLIC OUTCRY-LOCATION. The City recognizes that sales by public outcry can potentially create a higher noise level, larger crowds, increased parking problems, and generally increased activity than are characteristic of other types of sales activity and for these reasons it would be more appropriate to limit and restrict such sales by public outcry to the C-2 and C-1-S area of the General Commercial District of the City. Such sales may therefore be permitted on a conditional use permit only in the C-2 and C-1-S General Commercial Districts as set forth in Section 1390 of this Code.

1303.81 SALES BY PUBLIC OUTCRY — USE PERMIT REQUIREMENTS. In each case where a conditional use permit is issued for sales by public outcry, in addition to such other conditions as may be imposed by the Planning Commission and made a part of such permit in accordance with other applicable provisions of Part X of the Muncipal Code, the Planning Commission, upon issuance of the use permit, shall make the following requirements, which shall be stated upon the face of the permit:

a. The maximum capacity of customers for any one period of operation shall be not more than 50.
b. Fixed permanent seats shall be provided for the maximum permissible number of customers as established in Section 1303.81a above.
c. The sales area shall be set apart or screened in order to prevent the selling activity from being seen or heard by persons outside the structure.

Section 2. That Section 1308.7, Division 1, Part X be amended by the addition of a new sub-section which shall read as follows:

c. Merchandising and Sales by Public Outcry.

Section 3. That Part X of the Municipal Code be amended by the addition of a new section which shall read as follows:

1380.44 SALES BY PUBLIC OUTCRY shall mean the sale, exposure for sale, offering for sale, or the solicitation of purchasers, whether such sale is final or subject to recission without cause by the purchaser, by means of audible solicitation addresses collectively to a group of three (3) or more individual persons, but shall not include auction sales made pursuant to an order of any court.

Section 4. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall become effective thirty (30) days after its final passage and adoption.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea this 15th day of March, 1966.

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

I, HUGH BAYLESS, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel,-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 124 C.S., which was given its First Reading at a Adjourned Meeting of the said Council on the 14th day of December, 1965, and finally adopted at a Adjourned Meeting of the said Council on the 15th day of March, 1966.

I further certify that upon its passage the foregoing Ordinance was signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Clerk thereof.

DATED this 21st day of March, 1966.

AND SUDDENLY, IT'S SPRING!

Spring Comes to the Forest

With rhododendron and azaleas and many kinds of bulbs and Chinese magnolias and wild strawberries, especially in our forest park near Highlands Inn—three acres of natural and planted loveliness with a comfortable older home. Surveyed for division into 3 sites.

And it's Spring In the Garden

And you're a part of it from the comfort of your living room by means of a long window wall opening to the patio of a flexible 3 bedroom home within cart distance of Monterey Country Club. Clean as a pin and a VERY flexible floor plan, and only $37,500

And Up On The Hilltops

Where you can watch the changing greens on the serene Valley Hills, and the fields of poppies. See our fascinating adobe and redwood in Carmel Knolls (we think it's one of the most interesting homes we have). Or go with us to a knoll above Carmel Valley Village for a nearly new and really elegant 3 bedroom home with a sunny delight of a kitchen.

Have You Seen The Valley

In the Springtime of the Year?

We have many interesting things to show you out there now. One ten acre parcel with a rambling ranch-style home and a swimming pool, set in an old orchard, is especially lovely to look at this spring—and consider the investment future of 10 acres on the Valley Road!

Or the Rolling Upland Meadows?

Ceanothus, the wild coast lilac, is a blaze of purple on 183 acres near Rocky Point restaurant, on the East side of the Coast Highway—wonderful potential for development. Or we'll even take a picnic lunch if you'd like to run out to the Cachagua and consider 18 acres for only $25,000.

It's Spring in the Coastal Canyons

See our rugged little cabin on a beautiful acre of redwoods on the banks of the Palo Colorado for only $15,900. Or a parcel divisible into several lots up in the Garrapatas for under $10,000. Or consider the sheer enchantment of Garrapata Creek as you follow it through our 70 acre parcel about 15 minutes from Carmel, price tag at $210,000.

AND How's Your Ambition In Spring?

If your fancy turns to something New and Interesting in the way of a business, how about a slenderizing salon (call Mrs. O'Connor) or a sweater shop in Sausalito with a $16,000 net profit figure (call Mrs. Renk).

Answers To Questions On Tuesday's Election

of the district's revenue can be applied in 1966-67 to category costs affecting an ADA (average daily attendance) figure.

5. Has there been a rapid increase in student enrollment?

Cost studies as of October 31, reveal that the average daily attendance in 1959-60 was 2,349. The ADA basis on which the state will reimburse the Carmel district this year is 3,100 students. This shows an increase of 751 pupils or an average of 125 per year for ADA purposes. It is important that cost studies be used for ADA purposes as the state only reimburses the district on cost studies. Present adult school attendance is 900 persons. ADA compensation for this number will be paid on the basis of 186 ADA hours.

Should Public Law 874 federal funds be cut as proposed by President Johnson, six to seven cents of the district's income from the proposed $3.23 tax rate, which includes the 70c override, will be needed to pay for the education of military personnel in the district. Estimated entitlements under the law, if unchanged, are $71,062. If the law is amended as the President proposed, Carmel district will only get $31,978.

Another additional expenditure of Carmel district funds next year, required by state law, is the teaching of foreign languages in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades.

Questions 6 and 7 are as is stated by the taxpayers association. In Question 7, the ADA enrollment should be 3,100 as shown above.

9. What is the cost per student?

Figures here should read, Carmel, $681.98 and Pacific Grove, $481.28.

10. How does this figure compare to the state average.

Yesterday, Ray Johnson of the State Department of Education, said the state average for 1964-65 is $537.74 instead of $477.26 as quoted by the taxpayers association. In addition, the state official emphasized his department does not have a single piece of evidence as to expenditures in the current year for the Carmel school district. No definitive figures can be given until the year is over. (Teacher replacements because of illness, a broken pipe, even broken light bulbs, during the current year must be considered before the cost of education can be determined for 1965-66.)

11. What does the comparison of the tax rate mean?

There is a wide variation in assessed valuation due to the character of the area. Actual ranch land is valuated lower than land waiting to be subdivided.

12. Can you illustrate what this means?

Cost per student ADA is not the only logical comparison between between Carmel and other districts. The number of tax dollars actually paid is the only basis for true comparison. Carmel taxes are low. Even with the 70c override tax, Carmel will still have the lowest school tax rate on the Monterey Peninsula.

13. Do the state figures show why Carmel's cost is higher?

Comparing all unified school districts in the state, teachers' salaries in Carmel are 13% higher than the state average. The lower class size maintained in the Carmel Unified School District, not higher salaries paid teachers, largely accounts for this above-state-average figure which in 1960 was $34 above the state average: this year $260. Average salary of a Carmel teacher is $7,823; the state, $7,563. Starting salary of a Carmel teacher is $5,400.

Dividing the number of teachers into attendance gives a misleading per student ADA figure. Some of the certificated personnel in the district act as counselors, librarians, also music, art and remedial specialists. This factor reduces the teachers' salaries per student ADA.

14. What are other items above average?

The Carmel school district is half the size of the State of Rhode Island. Small schools are maintained in widespread areas requiring a principal for each school. This augments administration costs. Operation costs are higher than state average for the same reason. The size of the district is reflected particularly in one far-above-state average figure: that for transportation. Area of Carmel district is 594 square miles. Size of Pacific Grove district is 4½ square miles. Budgeted this year for transportation in the Carmel district is $81,977, Pacific Grove figure is $22,750. The State Supreme Court recently ruled that Carmel must provide transportation for a group of six children on the edge of the Greenfield school district at an annual cost equal to the salary of a well-qualified, experienced teacher.

At present, maintenance costs in the Carmel district are below state average. The board of education has placed income towards obtaining good teachers and neglected maintenance. The 70c override tax will help remedy this deficiency.

15. Just what do these figures mean?

The taxpayers association recommends a close analysis by qualified experts because the Carmel School District is operating at a cost 27% higher than state average. No means of financing this analysis is proposed.

In 1959 a team from the University of California and in 1962 a team from Stanford University made studies of the Carmel district's financial operation and needs. Other than a few changes in accounting procedure, both teams approved the fiscal operation of the district.

16. Is the high cost per ADA the only reason that you oppose the override?

The increase, which the taxpayers association says is 25%, actually will be less than 20% next year.

17. Can property owners continue to absorb the increased demands for more taxes?

The taxpayers association answer to this question contained quotations which apply to the state as a whole, not to the Carmel Unified School District.

18. What are the effects of rising taxes on the Carmel area?

Every subdivision does rob the area of more of its scenic beauty. Subdivisions adjacent to ranches and agricultural areas increase the taxes of these two types of adjacent land, but land in these categories, not adjacent to the above development — and shopping centers—are not evaluated for taxation on the same basis. Subdivisions add income to the school district. Excellent schools increase the value of real estate.

19. Is the public well enough informed to vote on these matters.

The Pine Cone, by reporting all board of education meetings, citizens committee reports and other factors relevant to the override tax has endeavored to inform the people of Carmel.

20. Do you expect a large turnout at this special election?

The Pine Cone, as does the taxpayers association, urges all voters to go to the polls on Tuesday. The Pine Cone, however, recommends a YES vote.

Corporation Yard Roof Offends City Planners

use only and no capital outlay be made on the site.

The report emphasized that state law requires the commission to study and make recommendations on the disposition and acquisition of city properties. Therefore, yesterday the commission reiterated approval of the sale.

The council's Scheme A construction for the public works facility was disapproved in the second report because the planning commission has never been asked to consider Scheme A wooden deck roofing over the facility. However, approval was given to Scheme B which provides a concrete deck which allows landscaping and planting, also protects the village character of the city from the effects of inharmonious, bizarre or out of scale development.

Because Walter Burde, civic center architect, had stated that wooden deck roofing will not support landscaping and uses by the public, the design review board of the planning commission would not be able to approve Scheme A, as it would not be aesthetically pleasing, the report adopted yesterday by the commission emphasized.

It also recommended that the city council only consider Scheme B concrete roof decking which would provide a place of beauty, usable and valuable to citizens for an indefinite time.

The civic center construction will be considered again by the council on April 6.

The council has received bids on Scheme A and Scheme B construction and will reject or accept the lowest bid on the same date. They are, respectively, $343,200 and $374,400, submitted by Comstock Associates.

Final Meeting On Medicare Program

The Sunset Commission will co-sponsor a final meeting on Medicare on Saturday at 2 p.m. in Sunset Center auditorium. Oscar L. Donaldson Jr., district manager for the Social Security Administration will speak and answer questions. Dr. James Gilman will act as chairman.
